

Prayers 2

The act of caring is a long conversation
And sometimes you will speak to each other.

I am here.
I see all of this too
We will do this together

There is Light in this place
Welcome it as it dwells here with us
There is The Light in us
Nurture it always.

We help to usher in the Light
We are neither the Sunlight nor the Moonlight
But we carry the twilight with us into the night
Like sparks that scurry from a flame
We rush to the morning
And rejoice in the Dawn as light breaks.
