The University of Virginia Health System (UVAHS) offers an American Society of Health-System Pharmacists (ASHP)-accredited PGY1-Pharmacy Residency. During this 12-month program, residents are involved in high-quality patient-centered care, medication use policy, leadership and practice management, project management, education of health care providers and trainees, and participation in medical emergencies. The purpose of the PGY1-Pharmacy Residency is to build on Doctor of Pharmacy (Pharm.D.) education and outcomes to contribute to the development of clinical pharmacists responsible for medication-related care of patients with a wide range of conditions, eligible for board certification, and eligible for postgraduate year two (PGY2) pharmacy residency training.

Residency Benefits
Current resident benefits include:
- Stipend of $47,680
- Twelve days paid vacation
- Eight days paid holidays
- Allotment of sick and interview days
- Premium medical/dental insurance
- Professional leave and travel stipend to attend meetings (ASHP Midyear and the regional residency conference)

Application Requirements
Applicants must:
- Be enrolled in or a graduate of an ACPE-accredited PharmD program
- Be a licensed pharmacist in the Commonwealth of Virginia by September 1.

Completed application materials must be uploaded into PhORCAS by January 2.

Michelle W. McCarthy, PharmD, FASHP
Dr. McCarthy is the Director of Medication Use Policy and Compliance and the Residency Program Director for both the PGY1-Pharmacy Residency and PGY2-Drug Information Residency programs. Dr. McCarthy, a graduate of Mercer University, completed an ASHP-accredited Drug Information Practice Residency at the University of Pittsburgh. Awards include 1997 Samford University School of Pharmacy Teacher of the Year, 2003 Virginia Society of Health-System Pharmacists (VSHP) Pharmacist of the Year, 2008 Louis P. Jeffrey Preceptor of the Year, and 2015 Distinguished Drug Information Practitioner Award by the American College of Clinical Pharmacy Drug Information PRN. She oversees the UVAHS Formulary, medication use evaluation program, regulatory accreditation, infusion pump libraries, and policies and procedures, while acting as the Secretary of the Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee. She has served as Education Committee Chair, Continuing Education Administrator, and President of VSHP. Additionally, Dr. McCarthy was on the ASHP Commission on Credentialing from 2008-2013, including serving as the Chair in 2012. As the manager of UVa’s Virginia Vaccines for Children program, one of her professional interests includes immunizations.
University of Virginia Health System

The University of Virginia (UVA) Health System, located in Charlottesville, Virginia, embodies the leadership and inventiveness personified by its founder, Thomas Jefferson. Two centuries ago in 1819, Jefferson established the nation’s 10th medical school, which has since grown into a nationally renowned academic medical center committed to providing outstanding patient care, educating tomorrow’s health care leaders and discovering better ways to treat disease.

UVA Health System received national recognition in the latest U.S. News & World Report “Best Hospitals” guide with 8 adult and 4 pediatric medical specialties recognized in 2016-2017. UVA Medical Center has received Magnet® recognition from the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) for its quality patient care, excellence in nursing care and innovative nursing practices.

The University of Virginia Health System integrates patient care, health education, research, and public service. The Health System consists of the following five entities: the University of Virginia Medical Center, the University of Virginia School of Medicine, the University of Virginia School of Nursing, the Claude Moore Health Sciences Library, and the UVA Physicians Group.

The University Community

Charlottesville is a modern, progressive city, filled with old-world elegance and charm, nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Charlottesville is famous for its colorful history, distinctive architecture, southern hospitality, and small city sophistication, with an estimated population of 201,599 residing in the greater Charlottesville metro area. Charlottesville has received extensive recognition including: #1 Most Beautiful College campus in America (Best College Reviews, 2015), top 12 cutest small towns in America (The Huffington Post, 2015), one of the USA’s 12 best places for book lovers (The Culture Trip, 2015), top 7 amazing destination bike roads (Bikewagon, 2015), top 10 brightest fall foliage destinations in the country (USA Today, 2014), Top-five new American foodie cities (Wine Enthusiast Magazine, 2014), Best College Town (Travelers Today, 2014), 4th Best Place to Live in the Country (Kiplinger’s Magazine, 2009), and the Happiest City in America (Good Housekeeping, 2014).
The Department of Pharmacy

The Department of Pharmacy has a progressive practice model with clinical coordinators and clinical pharmacists that provide extensive, decentralized clinical services throughout the health system. These efforts are supported by computerized prescriber order entry, extensive automation services, a state-of-the-art IV room, barcode medication administration, and an integrated electronic health record. Additionally, UVA Health System includes a Medication Use Policy Service, Investigational Drug Services, Outpatient Infusion Centers, a Children’s Hospital, as well as ambulatory oncology clinics, and several outpatient retail pharmacies.

Mission

The UVA Health System Department of Pharmacy Services will provide superlative patient-centered care focused on safe medication practices and innovative education and training.

Vision

The UVA Health System Pharmacy Department is a vital member of the patient care team dedicated to expanding patient care services and leading initiatives to maximize patient safety and improve outcomes. We are a collaborative group focused on providing superlative patient care in the setting of ongoing professional development by all employees, a productive, innovative work environment in which staff are engaged and motivated, and nationally-recognized clinical services and educational/training programs.

PGY1-Pharmacy Residency Program Overview

The 2016-17 UVA Health System PGY1-Pharmacy Residency will begin on July 1, 2017 and end on June 30, 2018. Mandatory resident orientation will take place for two business days in the middle of June.

Rotations are 5 weeks in duration (except for orientation). Required rotations include: orientation, internal medicine, ambulatory care, medication use policy, critical care, acute care specialty, and practice management.

Pharmacy residency policies can be referenced on the UVA pharmacy website at: http://www.medicalcenter.virginia.edu/pharmacy/residency_info

I. PGY1-Pharmacy Residency Rotations

Required Rotations

- Orientation: Rotation through various Pharmacy Department areas to understand the various services provided and includes code 12, aseptic technique, and electronic health record training
- Acute Care Specialty: Rotation in one Acute Care Specialty area (see choices below)
- Critical Care: Rotation in one of the Critical Care areas (see choices below)
- Medication Use Policy: Rotation in the Medication Use Policy Center
- Internal Medicine: Rotation within the inpatient medicine service
- Ambulatory Care: Rotation within the pharmacist-driven ambulatory care clinics
- Practice Management: Rotation with the Pharmacy Services Administrator/Directors-Managers

Acute Care Specialty

- Benign Hematology
- Emergency Department
- Hematology/Oncology
- Infectious Diseases (Consult, Immunosuppressed, or Clinics)
- Neurology
- Pediatrics
- Solid Organ Transplantation
- Stem Cell Transplantation

Critical Care Rotations

- Coronary Care Unit (CCU)
- Medical Intensive Care Unit (MICU)
- Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU)
- Nerancy Neuro Intensive Care Unit (NNICU)
- Pediatric Intensive Care Unit (PICU)
- Surgical Trauma/Burn Unit (STICU)
- Thoracic/Cardiovascular Surgery Post-Op (TCVPO)

Other Electives

- Acute Care Operations
- Informatics
- Medication Safety

Residents will have up to two rotations (10 weeks) available for elective rotations. To maintain compliance with the accreditation standard, no more than 3 rotations can occur in a similar practice area (eg, critical care, pediatrics) and at least two-thirds of the year is spent in direct patient care learning experiences. Additional rotations may be developed based on resident interest and preceptor availability. Between the third and fourth rotation blocks (November and December), residents will have a mixture of research days and mini-rotations.

Mini-rotations are abbreviated experiences (3-10 days in duration) held for a total of 13-16 days in November and December. These abbreviated experiences provide residents with exposure to areas in which 1) they do not have a scheduled rotation; 2) they would like repeat experiences beyond their scheduled rotations; or 3) they would like a varied experience beyond their scheduled rotations (ambulatory hematology/oncology vs. inpatient hematology/oncology). Additionally, there are select mini-rotations held... with services/departments outside of the pharmacy (ie, nutrition services, toxicology, pharmacogenomics research lab).

II. Research Activities
a. Completion of a major project is a requirement of the residency. Final reports must be submitted in manuscript style and approved by the Project Advisor and Program Director.
b. During the first half of the year, each resident will also complete a Medication Use Evaluation or Quality Improvement project. Completed projects will be submitted for poster presentation at the Vizient meeting held in conjunction with the ASHP Midyear Clinical Meeting.

III. Presentation Requirements
a. Residents are required to provide a platform presentation on the results of their residency research project at the regional residency conference.
b. Each resident is responsible for presenting one seminar, one case conference, and one technician talk during the course of the residency year. The seminar is ACPE-accredited to provide continuing education (CE) to pharmacists and the tech talk is ACPE-accredited for technician CE.

IV. Professional Leave for Meeting Attendance
a. Residents will attend the ASHP Annual Midyear Clinical Meeting and the regional residency conference. A flat travel stipend is provided; expenses incurred beyond the stipend are the responsibility of the resident.

V. Longitudinal Service
a. Weekend distributive functions provide necessary training for the resident and are a requirement of the ASHP residency accreditation standard.
b. Residents provide service in the distributive/clinical areas 16 hours every other weekend. Additionally, residents will work one major holiday (Thanksgiving and the day after, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, or New Year’s Eve and New Year’s Day) and the associated weekend.
c. Over the course of the year, residents work in various areas in the department including IV admixtures, unit dose, and decentralized clinical coverage.

VI. Certification
a. Residents are required to complete ACLS training and certification. This training is offered through the Medical Center at no charge to the resident. Pharmacy residents participate in ACLS training during the orientation period. Residents respond to Code 12 calls during the residency year.
b. PGY2 Residents have the opportunity to participate in the Certificate in Public Health Sciences for Resident and Fellow Physicians. Those interested in this opportunity must indicate this interest to the Program Director and apply through the GME office in the late spring.

VII. Teaching
The Department of Pharmacy has a partnership with VCU School of Pharmacy to offer a UVA Division Satellite Campus and serves as a rotation site for introductory and advanced pharmacy practice experiences. Residents will have a variety of teaching opportunities that include providing didactic experiences, serving as laboratory teaching assistants, and co-precepting students on clinical rotations. Through a partnership with the Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) School of Pharmacy, UVAHS pharmacy residents have the option to earn a Teaching and Learning Certificate.

VIII. Advisors
a. Each resident is matched with an advisor for the duration of the residency year. Matches are organized by the program director and are based on the career goals, specialty practice area interests, or other interests of the resident. Advisors serve as resources and mentors to the residents.
b. Residents will also have a primary preceptor for each of their required presentations as well as their MUE and residency project. Residents and the program director identify appropriate preceptors for these requirements based on the topic.

2016-2017 PGY1-Pharmacy Residents

Emily Burns, PharmD
PGY1-Pharmacy Resident
ee8n@virginia.edu

Dr. Burns is a graduate of the Virginia Commonwealth University School of Pharmacy, where she earned her PharmD degree in 2016. Her professional interests include critical care, emergency medicine, and cardiology. Dr. Burns will complete her quality project on driveline infections in patients with left ventricular assist devices to characterize antimicrobial susceptibility patterns. Her longitudinal research project will evaluate the impact of education initiatives and new clinical guidelines for delirium at UVA on outcomes, prescribing patterns, and adherence to the order set. Dr. Burns will be staying on at UVA to complete a PGY2 in Cardiology. Outside of pharmacy, she enjoys spending time with her dogs and riding horses.

Jillian Dann, PharmD
PGY1-Pharmacy Resident
jcd2q@virginia.edu

Dr. Dann is a graduate of the University of Colorado Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, where she earned her PharmD degree in 2016. Her professional interests include solid organ transplant and critical care. Dr. Dann will complete her quality project on the incidence of HIT in patients receiving VTE prophylaxis with either unfractionated heparin or low molecular weight heparin and the associated resource utilization of HIT. Her research project will evaluate the safety and efficacy of direct-acting antiviral agents in the treatment of hepatitis C viral infection in liver transplant patients. Upon completion of her PGY-1 pharmacy residency, Dr. Dann will be staying on at UVA to complete a PGY-2 in Transplant. In her free time, Dr. Dann enjoys exploring Virginia, walking her dog, going to concerts and playing tennis.

Sarah DeMott, PharmD
PGY1-Pharmacy Resident
sed5x@virginia.edu

Dr. DeMott is a graduate of the South Carolina College of Pharmacy at the University of South Carolina campus in Columbia, South Carolina, where she received her PharmD in 2016. She will be staying on at UVA to complete a PGY-2 in Critical Care. Dr. DeMott will complete a quality improvement project to analyze the current ordering process of tissue plasminogen activator (tPA) to evaluate any time discrepancies, which need reevaluation. Her longitudinal project will evaluate VTE reoccurrences and adverse events in weight based prophylaxis doses in heparin and enoxaparin. Outside of work she enjoys spending time with her friends and family, snuggling with her cat Colonel, watching Netflix, and exploring local vineyards, breweries, and restaurants with her co-residents.

Kyle Grose, PharmD
PGY1-Pharmacy Resident
kvg4b@virginia.edu

Dr. Grose is a graduate of the University of Kansas School of Pharmacy, where he earned his PharmD degree in 2016. His professional interests include hematology and oncology, pharmacogenomics, and academia. Dr. Grose’s quality project will evaluate a newly implemented heparin nomogram in obese patients at UVA. His longitudinal research project will evaluate rapid intravenous immunoglobulin rate titration and infusion reactions in the outpatient cancer clinic. Upon completion of his PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency, Dr. Grose will be staying on at UVA to complete a PGY-2 residency in Oncology. In his free time, he enjoys spending time outdoors with his fiancée, Carlie, and watching the Kansas Jayhawks and the Kansas City Royals.
Katherine Lemming, PharmD
PGY1-Pharmacy Resident
kil2t@virginia.edu

Dr. Lemming is a graduate of the Bernard J. Dunn School of Pharmacy at Shenandoah University in Winchester, Virginia, where she received her PharmD in 2016. Prior to pharmacy school, she attended the University of South Carolina and the George Washington University where she received a BS in Biological Sciences and BS in Health Sciences with a focus in Pharmacogenomics. Her professional interests include pediatrics and academia. Dr. Lemming will complete a quality improvement project evaluating the incidence of non-critical value, inpatient hypoglycemia found on a serum chemistry. Her longitudinal research project will analyze the safety and tolerability of lidocaine infusions in the pediatric population. Upon completion of her PGY-1 pharmacy residency, Dr. Lemming will be staying on at UVA to complete a PGY-2 residency in Pediatrics. In her free time, she enjoys visiting family and friends, going to the park with her dog, and exploring Charlottesville.

Sean McCullough, PharmD
sm5ce@virginia.edu

Dr. McCullough is a graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University School of Pharmacy, where he earned his PharmD degree in 2016. Prior to pharmacy school, he attended Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University where he received a BA in Chemistry. His professional interests include infectious diseases, oncology, and academia. Dr. McCullough will complete his quality project on the risk of non-melanoma skin cancers in lung transplant patients using prophylactic voriconazole. His longitudinal research project will look at the effect of concurrent Harvoni and proton pump inhibitor use on sustained virologic response rates. After completion of his PGY-1 residency, Dr. McCullough will be staying on to complete a PGY-2 residency in Infectious Diseases. Outside of work he enjoys sports, food, beer, and wilderness.

Chelsea Zavilla, PharmD
PGY1-Pharmacy/PGY2-Health System Pharmacy Administration Resident
cmz9g@virginia.edu

Dr. Zavilla is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh School of Pharmacy, where she received her PharmD degree in 2016. She is currently the PGY1-Health System Pharmacy Administration Resident and is earning her M.S. degree from Virginia Commonwealth University. Chelsea will complete a quality improvement project on developing a feedback tool for prescribers regarding their non-formulary ordering practices to promote responsible prescribing patterns. Her longitudinal research project will focus on increasing patient access to pharmacy personnel and analyzing the subsequent effects on the health system’s medication-related HCAHPS scores. Upon completion of her PGY1-pharmacy residency, Chelsea will continue as a PGY2-Health System Pharmacy Administration resident at UVA. Outside of work she enjoys cheering on her Pittsburgh sports teams, running and exploring the Charlottesville vineyards, historical sites and shopping areas.
