PGY1-PHARMACY RESIDENCY PRECEPTORS

Bryan Alexander, PharmD, BCPS
Dr. Alexander is one of the Pharmacy Clinical Coordinators in Infectious Diseases. He provides pharmacy services for the adult infectious diseases consult team, with a clinical and research focus on the immunocompromised/HIV and transplant infectious disease populations. Dr. Alexander completed his B.A. in Molecular and Cell Biology at the University of Chicago, and his PharmD at the University of Maryland. His ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice and Infectious Diseases residencies were fulfilled at Barnes-Jewish Hospital.

Winston Ally, PharmD
Dr. Ally is the Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator in solid organ transplantation, serving as the team leader for the transplant clinical pharmacy team. His primary practice site is the abdominal transplant acute care unit as well as the surgical ICU. Dr. Ally provides care for pre- and post-transplant patients in the inpatient and outpatient setting. Dr. Ally earned his PharmD degree from Rutgers University. He completed ASHP-accredited PGY1-Pharmacy Practice and PGY2-Solid Organ Transplantation residencies at Methodist University Hospital.

Kathleen A. Bledsoe, PharmD, BCPS
Dr. Bledsoe is the Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator for Neurosciences. Her primary practice site is in the neurosurgical/neurological ICU. She also serves as the team leader of the neurosciences clinical pharmacy team and oversees clinical pharmacy coverage for the neuro ICU step-down, stroke, and epilepsy units. She is also a member of the acute stroke code response team. Dr. Bledsoe received her PharmD degree from Albany College of Pharmacy. She completed ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice and Critical Care residencies at UVA.

Marcia Lease Buck, PharmD, FCCP, FPPAG
Dr. Buck is the Clinical Coordinator for Pediatric Pharmacy Service and Clinical Associate Professor of Pediatrics in the Schools of Medicine and Nursing. Her primary practice sites are the neonatal and pediatric ICUs. Dr. Buck received her BS Pharm. and PharmD degrees from Purdue University. She completed a Specialized Residency in Pediatrics and a Fellowship in Pediatric Pharmacotherapy at the Medical University of South Carolina. Her research interests include pediatric sedation and analgesia, traumatic brain injury, and extracorporeal membrane oxygenation. She is active in the Pediatric Pharmacy Advocacy Group (PPAG) and the American College of Clinical Pharmacy (ACCP). Dr. Buck currently serves as a member of the ACCP Board of Regents.

Mark Chabot, RPh, MBA, MHA
Mark Chabot received his BS Pharm from Butler University. Mark worked as a staff pharmacist and supervisor at University of Cincinnati Medical Center until 1997. Mark is responsible for the pharmacy informational system, pharmacy automation and supply chain. He has earned Masters in Health Administration and Business degrees from Pfeiffer University.

Susan Cogut, PharmD
Dr. Cogut is a Drug Information Specialist. Her primary practice area is Medication Management Use and Policy, where she works with Dr. McCarthy in providing drug information services to the health system. She serves as the secretary of the Hematology/Oncology Work Group and supports the P&T through Formulary management and drug use policy initiatives. Dr. Cogut earned her BS in Biology from the College of William & Mary and her PharmD degree from Virginia Commonwealth University/ Medical College of Virginia (MCV/VCU). She completed ASHP-accredited PGY1-Pharmacy and PGY2-Drug Information residencies at UVA.

Heather Cox Hall, PharmD, BCPS
As a Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator for Infectious Diseases and Clinical Assistant Professor of Medicine within the Division of Infectious Diseases and International Health, Dr. Hall provides pharmacotherapy services for both the antimicrobial stewardship and adult infectious diseases consult teams. She received her BS in Chemistry from McGill University and her Pharm.D from Nova Southeastern University. Her Pharmacy Practice and Infectious Diseases residencies were completed at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center. Dr. Hall’s clinical research focuses on the detection, therapy, and outcomes related to infection with multidrug-resistant Enterobacteriaceae. She was recently recognized with the VCU Outstanding Preceptor Award.

Kathlene DeGregory, PharmD, BCOP
Dr. DeGregory is the Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator for Hematology/Oncology and the director of the PGY2-Oncology Residency Program. Her primary practice sites are the inpatient hematology/oncology unit and stem cell transplant unit. She also serves as the team leader for the hematology/oncology clinical pharmacy team and supervises clinical pharmacy coverage for the outpatient infusion center. Dr. DeGregory received her BS Pharm and PharmD degrees from Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science and Temple University, respectively.

Steven Dunn, PharmD, BCPS
Dr. Dunn is the Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator in Cardiology and provides comprehensive pharmacy services with the Cardiology Pharmacy Team to the cardiac ICU and floor teams in addition to the heart failure/transplant service and the cardiac catheterization lab. He received a PharmD degree from VCU/MCV. In addition, he completed his PGY1 and PGY2-Cardiology residencies at the University of North Carolina. Dr. Dunn is active in the American College of Cardiology (ACC), American Heart Association (AHA), and ACCP and has ongoing research efforts regarding both antiplatelet therapy in cardiovascular disease and in pharmacy services to cardiovascular patients.

Tina M. Grof, PharmD, BCPS
Dr. Grof is a Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator in Emergency Medicine. Dr. Grof received her B.S in Chemistry from West Virginia Wesleyan College and her PharmD from West Virginia University. She completed her residencies in Pharmacy Practice and Critical Care at Carolinas Medical Center and at the UVA, respectively.

Rebecca Haynes Hockman, PharmD, BCPS
Dr. Hockman is a Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator for critical care and practices primarily in the Medical ICU. She received her BS and PharmD degrees from MCV/VCU. Dr. Hockman also serves as Assistant Director for the PGY2-Critical Care residency program.

Gary L. Johnson, PharmD, MHA
Dr. Johnson assumed the Director of Pharmacy position in 2009. He received BS in Biology from West Virginia University and Masters of Healthcare Administration and PharmD degrees from Mercer University. Dr. Johnson completed his General Practice Residency at Charleston Area Medical Center and a Specialty Pharmacy Practice Management Residency at the University of Cincinnati. He recently served in industry designing technologies to increase medication safety and departmental efficiencies, including barcode driven processes and perpetual inventories. Dr. Johnson has served as Corporate Director of Pharmacy at Parkview Health System and Assistant Director of Pharmacy at the University of Kansas Medical Center.

Julie J. Kelsey, PharmD
Dr. Kelsey is a Clinical Pharmacy Specialist in Women’s Health and Family Medicine. Her primary practice sites include Obstetrics (Labor & Delivery, Antepartum, and Postpartum), the Family Medicine inpatient service and the Family Medicine outpatient clinic. Dr. Kelsey received her PharmD degree from University of the Pacific. She completed an ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice Residency at the University of Utah and a Specialized Residency in Obstetrics, Gynecology, and Neonatology at The Regional Medical Center at Memphis.

Stephanie Mallow Corbett, PharmD
Dr. Mallow Corbett is the Director of Clinical Pharmacy Services. Dr. Mallow Corbett received her PharmD degree from Albany College of Pharmacy. She completed ASHP-accredited residencies in Pharmacy Practice and Critical Care, and a Fellowship in Trauma/Critical Care at Fletcher Allen Health Care. She has focused research efforts in analgesia, sedation, and delirium.

Steven R. Miller, RPh
Steven Miller is Director, Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Services. Steven received his BS Pharm degree from MCV/VCU. Steven practiced in independent pharmacy for 19 years and served as the Supervisor for the UVA Outpatient Pharmacy.

Stacey B. Pattie, PharmD, BCPS
Dr. Pattie is a Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator in Adult Internal Medicine. Her primary practice site is in on the acute care medicine ward. She also serves as the team leader of the medicine clinical pharmacy team and provides and/or supervises clinical pharmacy coverage for the Hospitalist service(s). She received her PharmD degree from University of North Carolina and completed an ASHP-accredited Pharmacy Practice Residency at UVA. Her interests include the management of general infectious diseases, anticoagulation, and diabetes management.

Jefferson M. Sesler, PharmD, BCPS
Dr. Sesler is the Clinical Pharmacist for Cardiovascular and Thoracic surgery. Dr. Sesler received his BS in Biology from Virginia Tech. He received his BS Pharm and PharmD degrees from MCV/VCU. He completed an ASHP-accredited Hospital Pharmacy Residency at the MCV. He is the Membership Committee Chair and a Past Regional President for VSHP. His other interests include infectious complications in the postoperative patient, parenteral nutrition, and lipid management.

David Volles, PharmD, BCPS
Dr. Volles is a Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator in the Surgical / Trauma ICU and the Director for the PGY-2 Critical Care residency program. Dr. Volles received his BS in Biology from Virginia Tech and PharmD degree from MCV/VCU. He completed a Pharmacy Practice Residency at the UVA. His areas of interest include ICU sedation/analgesia, surgical infectious diseases, sepsis, and anticoagulation issues in the ICU. He is also a member of the UVA institutional review board which reviews and approves all research on humans.

Donna M. White, RPh, CDE
Ms. White is a Pharmacy Clinical Coordinator in Ambulatory Care. Currently, she serves an Internal Medicine Clinic, where patients are referred for hypertension, diabetes, hyperlipidemia, anticoagulation, and tobacco cessation. She also serves in the Diabetes Cardiology and Women’s Cardiology Clinics. She received her BS in Pharmacy from MCV/VCU and has been a Certified Diabetes Educator since 1998. Recently, Ms. White received the VCU class of 2010 Mentor Award. In addition to her areas of practice, her other interests include geriatrics, patient safety, and research.